

Eminent Tiny Town Artist George Rhoads: Everything Must Go! Art Sale to Save an Icon

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 23 October 2014 10:36 - Last Updated Thursday, 23 October 2014 11:13

Eminent Tiny Town Artist George Rhoads: Everything Must Go! Sale to Save George

Tiny Town's wonderful master, George Rhoads, is selling more than 200 paintings to be exhibited in his home at 116 Valley View Road, off of Elm Street on West Hill.

WHEN: Saturday, Nov. 1, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

INFO: 14 walls of paintings of all kinds: tinytowntimes.com is posting three of his environmentals here, sent to us by Emily R. Johnson, author, artist and George's Big Little Sister here in Tiny Town.

REFRESHMENTS: Beverages will be available and feel free to byob

CONTACT: Emily R. Johnson at 272-4811

Background: George, a friend for years, is possibly best known for his popular Audio-Kinteic Sculptures, also called rolling ball sculptures.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rolling_ball_sculpture . But he was an accomplished artist long before he took up metal sculpting which led to his wonderful contraptions, on display around the world.

Eminent Tiny Town Artist George Rhoads: Everything Must Go! Art Sale to Save an Icon

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 23 October 2014 10:36 - Last Updated Thursday, 23 October 2014 11:13

Emily Johnson's book "Wizard at Work" describes her brother's ascent as an artist and what it is like to watch such a brother evolve. Her excellent book is available at Amazon.com
<http://www.amazon.com/Wizard-Work-Life-George-Rhoads/dp/1608449688>

Please do come to this rare event ...

